

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Sees Miss Starr Wearing Smart Costume—She Talks of Mrs. George Dallas Dixon's Play to Be Given on January 17.

I SAW Logan Starr on the street one day last week looking very well in a long cloak of dark blue cloth with a collar of soft woolly material in the same shade. Her hat was a tangerine-shaded felt duvetyne, dotted with small vari-colored cube beads and the band which rested on the hair was of red velvet.

Mr. and Mrs. Starr and Logan have taken apartments in the Bellevue-Stratford for the rest of the winter. I don't see how a "bud" can live anywhere but in town and stand the pace at all. Just think of going to a ball at half after 11, dancing until after 4 o'clock and then having to ride out into the country for half an hour or an hour before being able to start to get to bed and sleep.

I HEAR that Jane Maulie Melver, who with her husband spent ten days here at Christmas time and who has been in New York since then, has come back to Philadelphia and will stay several weeks with her parents, the Charles Price Maules, at 2217 Rittenhouse street. Jane is going to take the leading part in Mrs. George Dallas Dixon's play, which is to be given a week after to-morrow night at the Academy of Music.

It is to be an awfully pretty thing, and thank goodness there's an absence of jazz in it. It seems so refreshing to me these days when I hear music that has straight, soft, catchy tunes and is not full of wild shrieks and wild discords. I told my friend, Miss Victor Mather, Mrs. George Earle, 3d, and Mrs. Gardner Casatt, who is Mrs. Dixon's daughter, by the way, will appear on the opera at the Academy from Paris, "most exquisitely gowned."

Last year Molly Thayer's movie, "Talk of the Town," was given under the auspices of the Junior League for the Seaman's Institute Building fund, and the "Marriage Tax," which is the name of Mrs. Dixon's play, will give the proceeds to that institute as well. Mrs. Thayer, though the relationship is on the Dixon side of the family, Mr. Dixon being a brother of Mrs. Thayer, Molly's mother.

WHILE talking of Molly, have you heard of the wonderful trip she is to have? She is going to Europe the 25th of this month with Isabel Rockefeller, the Percy Rockefeller's daughter, of New York, and they expect to travel over there for a week or two. The Misses Dixons will give a dinner-dance for Molly on the 21st of January at the Ritz-Carlton.

IT LOOKS as if the opera would be particularly brilliant tomorrow night when the Roi d'Ys will be sung, so many parties are planned. When following the performance there will be much entertaining at the Opera Supper Club in the form of Mrs. Joseph Ledy and Miss Frances Wister will act as hostesses, and they will be assisted by Mrs. Alexander Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Charles Edward Ingersoll, Mrs. George W. Childs, Mrs. Francis I. du Pont, Mrs. John B. Thayer, 3d, Mrs. J. Wilmer Biddle, Mrs. Frank Graham Thomson, Mrs. Richard M. Chivalade, Mrs. Edward J. Hoff, of Broad City; Mr. Edward Biddle and Mr. Homer Read, while Mrs. du Pont will entertain for Laura Garrison.

BILLIE is five years old and he has had his hair cut short like a real man. Furthermore he talks like a real man. Aunt Betty went to see him the other day and she took his little sister a paint box, while to him she gave a box of crayons. After explaining about the paint box mother turned to Billie and asked: "And what did Aunt Betty bring you, dear?" Billie smiled with pleasure and answered: "Something to mess around to every one after dinner."
